  - where you order a CloudLine Unlimited or CloudLine PAYG services with contract duration of 24 months, you will receive one Yealink T41S phone per line and an accompanying power supply unit (PSU), free of charge. You may exchange the Yealink T41S phone, for a different VoIP phone (e.g. Yealink T46S, T48S, etc.) by paying the difference between the standard listed price of your chosen phone and the Yealink T41S phone. If the price of that phone is less than that of T41S, we will not refund you the difference. The free phone offer cannot be exchanged for any credits or cash.
  - If you received a free VoIP phone as part of this Promotion, and terminate your contract before end of the contracted term, you must pay a break fee using the following formula: months remaining in the contract (including current month) * monthly equated value of the Yealink T41S phone ($ 7.915) ('Break Fee').
  - E.g., if you terminate a 24 month contract in the 11th month, the remaining months = 24-10 = 14. Break fee = 14 * $ 7.915 = $110.81 (inc. GST).
  - The Break Fee is in addition to any other contractual contract break fee, as per your relevant Critical Information Summary (CIS).
